SAM STRÖMERSTÉN TO BECOME SIDEL GROUP PRESIDENT AND CEO

Effective 1 January 2016, Sam Strömerstén, currently Executive Vice President, Supply Chain Operations at Tetra Pak, is appointed President and CEO of Sidel Group.

Mart Tiismann, President and CEO Sidel Group, will leave his current position on 31 December 2015, to pursue a career opportunity outside Sidel.

Strömerstén joined Alfa Laval as Production Manager in 1984 and held various positions within Alfa Laval before joining Tetra Pak in 1992. Prior to his current role, Strömerstén was President of Tetra Pak's Processing Systems business. He joined Tetra Pak's global leadership team in 1999.

Strömerstén has a degree in engineering from the Swedish University in Lund. He is married with six children.
